Notice of Retraction
Marko Marušić, Editor in Chief, Croatian Medical Journal

The article "Intervillous blood flow in patients with missed abortion" by Kurjak A, Kupesic S, Hafner T, Latin V, Kos M, Harris RD (1) has been retracted at the request of the editors because the authors had infringed the normal professional ethical codes by submitting the above article to the Croatian Medical Journal after an article with substantial overlap of patients, methods, and results has been accepted for publication in another journal (2).
