

Table S2. Instructions for choosing responses to questions in which students had to assess their agreement with a particular statement

Grade 1 means that you completely disagree with the statement.
Grade 2 means that you mostly disagree with the statement.
Grade 3 means that you neither agree nor disagree with the statement.
Grade 4 means that you mostly agree with the statement.
Grade 5 means that you completely agree with the statement.