

Description of the Rotations

Practicals

Work in ambulances, in groups of two, according to the schedule which was prepared by the 6th year representative.

Emergency medicine course

A three-day course in which the objective is to learn and practice resuscitation in different scenarios.

Simulations

Repetition of certain scenario under the supervision of the assistant doctor

Essay, Emergency states in medicine

Portrayal and analysis of a patient based on contemporary literature

Essay Presentation

Present the presentation in front of the class followed by a short discussion

Case reports

Presentation and discussion of specific patients with the assistant doctors and teachers