

University of Split School of Medicine
MEDICAL STUDIES IN ENGLISH
RATIONAL PHARMACOTHERAPY

Exercises:	Duration:
Rational antimicrobials use: part 1	3
Rational antimicrobials use: part 2	5
Rational pharmacotherapy of pain: part 1	2
Rational pharmacotherapy of pain: part 2	2
Rational pharmacotherapy of diabetes: part 1	3
Rational pharmacotherapy of diabetes: case reports from clinical practice: part 2	3
Rational pharmacotherapy in emergency medicine: part 1	3
Rational pharmacotherapy in emergency medicine: part 2	3
Acute poisoning and rational antidote therapy	5
A rational approach to the treatment of acid-base disorders	4
Rational use of anticoagulants and antiarrhythmics	4
Rational pharmacotherapy in hypertension, hypertensive crisis, dyslipidemia	2
Rational pharmacotherapy in elderly	2
Rational pharmacotherapy in children	4
Rational pharmacotherapy in pregnancy and lactation	3
Rational pharmacotherapy in patients with impaired hepatic and renal function	2
Rational use of oxygen and intravenous fluids	2
Drugs in physician's bag	2
Electronic drugs prescribing	3
Case reports from clinical practice: Using databases with verified drug information	3

Total classes related to the course Rational pharmacotherapy:

60 E = 60 student hours

(60 x 2 groups = 120 norma hours)